WELCOME & NOTICES

1. Welcome: A warm welcome to everybody, including our newcomers, for joining our service today. Please join us for fellowship and light refreshment after the service.

2. Sunday Activity: Thank you to Helen Yim for her message today. Helen's bio: "My name is Helen Yim. I was born in HK and migrated to Sydney in 1996 with my family. My family was a non-Christian household, but the Lord reached out to us and saved us one by one. I became a follower of Jesus through 1-1 bible reading at uni in 1999, and then followed by my mother, then my father a few years later. Although my older sister and my younger brother are still refusing to come to church with us, I trust that God is slowly working in their heart and our prayer is that they may also be saved one day.

   Since I became a Christian, I started to serve in my church as a lay leader in various ministries, for many years, I have never thought about stepping into full-time ministry. However, God stirred my heart to start thinking, praying, and participating in local and overseas missions since 2005. Until 2012, I decided to let go of work completely to move to full-time ministry. Thanks to Kian that I was able to be part of the UTS Credo team, and be able to serve the international and local students there since 2013. This is now my fifth year at Credo. I have come a long way, from my very Chinese and proud self to one who has learnt so much about my own sinfulness and still learning today. I thank God for revealing this to me every day as I serve Him, because it is only the realisation of my brokenness and sinfulness that I can rely on Him and stand firm in hold tight to his promises. I continue to rejoice in the Lord today for accepting and using me, a broken vessel to serve his people."

3. Celebrating Mother's Day: Sunday 12th of May will be combined service to celebrate Mother's day together. There will be gifts to all the Mothers as appreciation for their hard work, and pot luck luncheon after service, so please bring a dish or two to share.
